List some positive points about the text that you believe made it an interesting or engaging read.

_____________________________________________________________________________

_____________________________________________________________________________

Describe some aspects of the text that disappointed you or caused you to feel frustrated as a reader.

_____________________________________________________________________________

_____________________________________________________________________________

How do the ideas in the text connect with the real world and/or your own life?

_____________________________________________________________________________

_____________________________________________________________________________

Describe anything you saw in this text that you'd like to remember to include in your writing.

_____________________________________________________________________________

_____________________________________________________________________________